

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indians's Telephone Privacy law protections.

I is unbeliavable how much nicer the days and evenings are without the constant telemarketing calls.

Do nothing to change this law please